

The child protection process

Click here to see the booklet Parents' Rights, Kids' Rights.

* Any time after the ministry decides that your child needs protection, you have the option to work out an agreement through mediation, traditional decision making, or a family group conference. See pages 13–16 for more information.